

You don't need that extra bedroom really--

since the Kroehler Davenport contains such a comfortable, full size bed, holds a full weight mattress; since it is so simple and easy to operate, you can change your living room into a sleeping room.

A real davenport by day, and a real bed by night. Ask to see it.

TALK OF THE TOWN

H. T. Baldwin, a well known Wells River business man, was a Barre visitor yesterday.

C. M. Leach, James H. Clark and S. B. Bemis were among the Hardwick business visitors in Barre yesterday.

Unusually clear half-tones of artistic memorial in Hope and Elmwood cemeteries accompany an interesting article in the current issue of the Monument & Cemetery Review, published by Harry A. Bliss of Buffalo, N. Y. The Barre Granite Manufacturers' and Quarriers' association is openly commended for its advertising campaign and its efforts in the direction of improving cemetery art. The Review is the first monument publication to go on record in this way. Among the memorials mentioned for their intrinsic worth are the John Magnaghi and Charles Bianchi monuments at Hope cemetery and the E. A. Bugbee, G. B. Milne, Robins and Buchanan memorials at Elmwood cemetery. Three pages are devoted to the Barre cemeteries and monument industry.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Mrs. Elmer Brown and son, Paul, of Waterbury Center are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. J. H. Kelley, of upper Prospect street.

Charles N. Lapoint of St. Johnsbury, a former employee of Houghton & Robins, who has been working in Lyndonville for several months, has been visiting friends in the city for a few days. Mr. Lapoint leaves with the Washington county contingent for Syracuse, N. Y., Monday.

Sec. Harold P. Hinman of the Granite Manufacturers' association returned this morning from Boston, where he has been attending a meeting of the directors of the New England Traffic league, in which organization he was recently elected a director. The league was recently formed in Boston to protect commercial interests in New England against alleged unfair discrimination in rate adjustments in favor of other manufacturing sections. The league membership includes representatives of the best known industries in New England.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Beckley, John Devereux of Northfield is visiting for a few days with friends in the city. Dance at Woodbury pond every Friday night. An ideal spot and a good time—adv.

Great bargains in trimmed and untrimmed hats in white and colors for Saturday. Mrs. C. R. Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Kempton of South Main street were in Northfield to-day to attend the funeral of Timothy Holland.

Richard T. Herbert of Waterbury, who has been called to leave next Monday for Syracuse, N. Y., spent Thursday with his sister, Mrs. Henry Summers, of Trow hill.

Marvin V. Larivee, who has been passing a vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Larivee of Springfield, returned this forenoon to Springfield, Mass., where he is employed.

Rev. and Mrs. W. J. M. Beattie and children of Tremont street, who are passing several days at their farm near Enosburg Falls, have been entertaining Miss Penelope Gall and Mrs. Mabel McLeod.

Miss Selma Bridgeford of Washington street has returned from a visit of five weeks with relatives in Lawrence, Mass., and Lynn, Mass. During her absence she was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Venie, formerly of Barre.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Donahue and daughter of Middlebury and Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Holland of Boston, who have been visiting relatives on South Main street, have gone to Northfield, where they attended the funeral of Timothy Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kelley of upper Prospect street have had as their guests this week Mrs. Samuel Smith and Mrs. Harvey Hurlburt and son, Waits, of Worcester, Mass. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Hurlburt are sister and niece of Mrs. Kelley.

Mrs. Mason T. Page, a long-time resident of Barre, left last night for Allston, Mass., where she is to make her home. The Page house at 99 Elm street is to be occupied by E. H. Slayton of Plainfield, who is moving his family to this city.

The condition of C. J. Allen of Beckley street, who has been seriously ill as the indirect result of an accident in which he injured his hand at the mill of the Allen Lumber Co., is improving steadily, and the patient is now able to be about the house.

All children and parents are wanted at the Goddard campus Friday evening, Aug. 2, at 7:30 o'clock, at the free community rally, play festival and ticket hunt, given under the direction of the Community Chautauqua. Don't let your children miss a good time—adv.

J. C. of Division street is detained at home by painful injuries which he received while working in his Granite street granite plant a few days ago. Mr. Spector was arranging some timbers when a beam fell on him. He received severe bruises, but it is not thought that any bones were broken.

The women of Barre and vicinity should bear in mind the free canning demonstration under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary to the food administration at the Spaulding high school assembly hall Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 6. Miss Holden, an expert from the state extension bureau in Burlington will be the demonstrator.

Auction sale at No. 12 Eastern avenue, Saturday, Aug. 3, at 2 p. m. Mrs. James Duncan will sell all her household goods at auction on the above date. See adv. Chamber suits, china closets, parlor set, writing desk, art squares, linoleum, couch, hammock, book case, lawn mower, refrigerator and a host of other goods. O. H. Hale, auctioneer.

On account of chairs being moved from the churches to the Chautauqua tent, the union service, usually held in the park, will be held in the Chautauqua tent Sunday afternoon at 6 o'clock. Hon. Charles G. Seltzer, American Consul at Breslau, Germany, until America entered the war, will deliver an address entitled, "The Influence of the Church in Germany." A collection will be taken.

Prin. and Mrs. O. K. Hollister of Rachel Hollister, who have been spending a few weeks at the camp on Nelson pond, returned to the city last evening. They were accompanied by Miss Annie Sargent of Warren, who has been spending the past two weeks at the Hollister camp. Miss Sargent left the city this forenoon for Montpelier, where she will make a visit of a few days before returning to her home.

It is hoped that all the parents and children in the city, as far as possible, will assemble in the square at the Catholic and Presbyterian churches at 6:30 this evening and march to the Goddard campus, where the children will engage in a ticket hunt and various games and listen to a brief patriotic address by Charles H. Wishart. This is free to everybody. The Chautauqua proper opens to-morrow with the Liberty Maids, a singing orchestra of patriotic Americans, and a lecture by Hon. Harry G. Seltzer, American consul at Breslau, Germany, until America entered the war.

A happy issue of the juvenile court hearings at city hall yesterday, when many neighbors testified that nine-year-old Ida Crugnola had been mistreated by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Crugnola of Smith street, came about in the afternoon after many witnesses had been heard. Mrs. Andrew Crugnola, who lives on Foss street, told the court that she and her husband would be willing to take the child if she could be legally adopted. Foster-parents of the little girl readily assented to the plan and it is expected that new adoption proceedings will be instituted in probate court within a few days. Additional evidence tending to support the contention that the child had been mistreated was brought out by State's Attorney Earle R. Davis when the hearing reopened after the noon recess. Then members of the Crugnola family had their hour in court and their testimony was to the effect that meddlesome neighbors had exaggerated the facts. It was claimed that the child had been conducted in frequent punishment. Thirteen-year-old Mario Crugnola, between sobs of stage-fright, told the judge that the little girl had been very mean to him, that she both slapped and pinched him. Previously the North Barre school register had been introduced to show that the girl attended school only about half the time last winter. Mario asserted that his sister alone was to blame. In closing the hearing, Magistrate H. W. Scott commended Mr. and Mrs. Crugnola on the motives which prompted them to adopt a waif, but suggested that a change of environment undoubtedly would prove beneficial for all concerned. To that end, he said, negotiations for placing the little one in the family of Mr. and Mrs. A. Crugnola, would be gotten under way at once. The Foss street Mr. Crugnola is a brother of Peter Crugnola.

First Showing of New Fall Dresses

This may seem early to talk Fall Dresses, but this is a different season than we ever had before. Prices are bound to be much higher later, and all reorders will have to cost us much more on these Dresses.

While in the market two weeks ago, we were able to get some extra good Dress values, in styles that are the latest and qualities that are not so much advanced over other seasons. This you can readily realize when you see the quality and know the prices we have put on them.

We have one lot of Silk Poplin Dresses that are made of the season's best quality Poplin. Some are embroidered in front, others plain tailored. These are made in the best of shape. Come in all colors and Black. The prices are only $11.00 and $12.00 each. Do not expect to get them at these prices later, because the price has already advanced on these same models when we rebuy.

The cut represents one of our new Silk models and is a model that must appeal to all as the season's newest. We can show you 50 other models just as good and in a quality that is up to others you have paid as much for many times before. These are Chiffon Taffeta and Satin Dresses, with Georgette Sleeves, and an assortment of styles in Georgette Collars are very attractive models, made in the season's best styles, and the price is only $15.00 each. You surely cannot make up such a Dress for this price at the price of Silk to-day.

Cool Weather Necessities

Why not buy a cool, comfortable, Voile Middie now, for these extremely hot days? They are just the proper thing to help you keep cool and comfortable.

We have just received a large invoice of these most popular, warm weather Middies. These are not only cool, but are the popular holiday and sport Middies.

The White Smock is made of plain White Voile, has plain-colored collar, cuffs and belts, is smocked in front. These are surely a very popular, cool garment.

The Slip-On Middie is very popular with the girls and young ladies. These are in good quality Voiles, in White, collars, cuffs and belts of plain colors. See these in our north show window.

We cannot help but speak of our line of Thin Jap Silk Waists. These are a Waist that everyone likes. They are cool and have the real wearing qualities. We buy them by the 30-dozen lots, and they melt away like ice on these warm days. Every lady should have one in each of the different colors. They are fine in Black also. The price is only $2.00 each.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon O. Saunders and two sons left yesterday morning for their home in Corning, N. Y., after visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Saunders, of Trow hill. They went by the way of the Adirondacks. The trip was made by auto.

A dissolution of partnership has been effected between Henry L. Petrie and Alfred Gerbetti, who have been conducting Jack's Lunch, a well known depot square restaurant, under the firm name of Petrie & Gerbetti. Mr. Gerbetti withdraws from the firm because he is to join the colors this month. He has sold the interest which he recently purchased from Duncan J. McMillan to Mr. Petrie, who will conduct the business alone. Mr. Gerbetti plans to join the mechanics' units at Tufts college around Aug. 15.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Frank C. Phillips, a Northfield granite manufacturer, transacted business in Barre yesterday and to-day.

Mrs. F. A. Lawton of Springfield, Mass., is a visitor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Cook of East street.

Claude Partridge, formerly of Barre, left the city yesterday morning for Burlington to report for duty as a seaman in the navy, having succeeded in passing entrance examinations.

Changes brought about in the granite industry by reason of men joining the colors are numerous. At the plant of Comelli & Sons, Armando Comelli has assumed complete management of the business in the absence of his brother, who is in the army. Paul Hedwall & Co. are finishing the unfilled contracts of Nelson & Berg. Gustafson E. Berg has joined the national army and his partner, John Nelson, has gone to Illinois to set up a retail monument establishment.

PEROXIDE

So valuable is pure peroxide as an antiseptic dressing and for the destruction of germs that only a pure, fresh product should be kept on hand. No Peroxide can be guaranteed against deterioration, and this fact emphasizes the need for new, perfect quality at once. Buy our Peroxide in any quantity you please. The best there is.
